

The Janesville Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1885

NUMBER 93

There were nineteen graduates in the law department of the State university. The work of building the new science hall was let to J. Trumbull, of Whitewater, for the sum of $50,000. The highest bid was $74,050.

It is no wonder the weather has been cold for this season of the year. Charles Francis Adams is out west.

Mrs. Robert L. Stewart, wife of the philanthropic New York millionaire recently deceased, has given the 10,000 volumes of her late husband's library to the Society of Fine Arts, the American Museum of Natural History, and other institutions. The selection of books by the beneficiaries is now being made. The value of the library is about $50,000.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at the Lawrence University, Appleton, yesterday afternoon: President, J. H. Whorton, Appleton; vice-president, Robt. McMiller, Oshkosh; second vice-president, N. G. Gidin, Fond du Lac; treasurer, S. K. Wambaw; trustees to fill vacancies, Edward West, Appleton; E. R. Payne, Milwaukee, and D. G. Ormsby, Pewaukee, in place of Mr. Bradford, resigned.

The example of Miss Helen Taylor, who has promised to contest a borough for a seat in the British house of commons in the radical interest, at the next election, is becoming contagious. An Irish young woman intends to imitate her London sister by standing as a home rule candidate for an Irish borough, and an English girl of conservative politics has made a similar announcement in one of the midland counties of England.

Good fortune has followed Professor William Trelease, of the botanical department of the State University. He is a machinist by profession, and is only 23 years old. He took a special course at Harvard and then came to Wisconsin. He is a most promising young man, and a few weeks ago, when the managers of the botanical gardens connected with the St. Louis university applied to Harvard for the brightest young men they knew of for the management of the university botanical department, the professors told the managers to go to Wisconsin and get Trelease. They did so, and offered $2,500 a year. He has decided to go, which will be a serious loss to the University of Wisconsin.

General Pope has transmitted to the war department an account of the killing of a Pinto Indian named Joe by two white men in Happy Valley, Oregon. In commenting upon the killing, General Pope again invites attention to the white and Indian outrages, which are increasing in frequency in the southern part of Oregon. He says the Indians having no reservation they are willing to frequent that country for subsistence by hunting and fishing. The state of affairs now existing is certain to grow worse, and must finally culminate in open hostilities unless a reservation is assigned to these Indians, and they are all placed on it. The commissioner of Indian affairs has directed an agent to investigate the circumstance and report measures looking to the protection of the Indians.

There has been a good deal of bad blood stirred up in the State university by the bitter antagonisms that have existed for some time between President Bascom and Colonel Keyes. It would not be a harsh judgment to say that President Bascom is responsible for much of this unfortunate trouble which has surrounded the university for some time. He preferred charges against Colonel Keyes, charging him with trying to cheat the university in selling a lot of shade trees to the state the president claiming that he demanded pay for more trees than he actually delivered. A special committee was appointed to investigate the charges, and much to the disappointment and disgust of Bascom, the committee unanimously exonerated the colonel. Bascom also recommended that Keyes be removed from the board of regents, but the committee likewise unanimously denied to recommend his removal. It would be a good thing if President Bascom would resign.

On the first of July there will be some important postal changes take effect. If true they are as follows:

1. Any article in a newspaper or other publication may be marked for observation, except by written or printed words, without increase of postage.

2. All newspapers sent from the office of publication, including sample copies, or when sent from a news agency to actual subscribers thereto, or to other news agents, shall be entitled to transmission at the rate of one cent per pound or fraction thereof, the postage to be prepaid.

3. The weight of all single-weight letters is increased from one-half of one ounce each or fraction thereof to one ounce. The same increase of weight is allowed for drop letters, whether mailed at stations where there is a free delivery or where carrier service is not established.

4. A special stamp of the value of 10 cents may be issued, which, when attached to a letter, in addition to the lawful postage thereon, shall entitle the letter to immediate delivery at any place containing 4,000 population or more, according to the federal census, or within one mile of the postoffice coming within the provisions of this law, which may in like manner be designated as a special delivery office; such stamp specially stamped letters shall be delivered between 7 a.m. and midnight.

A few days ago the postoffice department had done nothing toward carrying out the provisions of the last mentioned act. It has been too busy decapitating postmen to attend to business.

It is possible that should cholera come to the United States, it will not spread very rapidly through the Western states. But it is always best to persistently adopt those sanitary measures that will do much to prevent the spread of cholera. Mr. C. H. Haskins, of Milwaukee, has written a letter to the Sentinel in which he points out a course, if closely followed, that will prevent cholera from taking a foothold in that city. He suggests that for a city far away from the ocean, Milwaukee is peculiarly liable to be among the first to get cholera on this side. Nearly all immigrants for the northwest come direct to Milwaukee. From there they are distributed by the several great railways all over the north and west. It would be calamity to Milwaukee and the northwest to get even a few cases of cholera there, and nothing but vigilance on the part of the authorities is certain to prevent it. It is better to expend several thousand dollars on extraordinary precautions, than it is to omit a single necessary thing. The authorities of Milwaukee should not underestimate their duties and responsibilities in this matter. He shows that the smaller towns cannot provide the protection that a great city can, or that they are expected to do so. Milwaukee, therefore, not only owes it to herself but to all the country tributary to her use, the greater care to prevent the cholera from coming into the northwest.

MILTON.—Last Wednesday Mrs. E. M. Dunn had a birthday, and the Ladies S. D. B. Evangelical society commemorated the event by presenting her with an elegant bed quilt. The birthday of Madam W. H. Bowdoin and L. E. Palmer occurred on the same day.

Frank H. True, formerly of Osage, Iowa, was in town Saturday, visiting relatives. He informs us that he has no permanent abiding place now, being engaged in raising cattle on a Montana ranch, but intends to locate in Janesville soon.

Thousands of tobacco plants were set out here last Saturday and Sunday. A number of our citizens are enjoying the roses at Jacqueville this week.

Rev. N. C. Fisher occupied the parsonage at the D. B. church in this village Saturday morning.

Mrs. Washington Clarke has improved the appearance of the house in which she resides by having it painted.

Do not forget the college field day games on the public square this (Thursday) afternoon. Everybody is invited.

Mukwonago Wells is driving a new milk wagon that is hubbed up in true style with portraits of bouvines on the sides and ends. An indication of progress we take it.

Last Saturday, somebody stole several thousand tobacco plants from Goodrich and Kelly. Although they are satisfied who the guilty person was, they are unable to prove it. Sorry that such is the fact.

The change in the atmosphere Sunday was an agreeable one for the human family, and tobacco plants.

President Whitford delivered an address Thursday at the meeting of old settlers at Palmyra.

A. Wilmarth, who has been spending some months here with his family, left for Hamilton, Novato, last week, to look after his mining interests. He intends to return this fall.

E. Hudson, of St. Louis, Missouri, is in town this week to visit relatives.

The session of the Northwest Association of Seventh Day Baptists begins here Tuesday. Already a goodly number of the brethren from abroad have arrived and the meetings promise to be largely attended.

Mrs. F. M. Wilbur left on the morning train for Hartford, where she will organize a Ladies' Relief Corps of the G. A. R.

Prof. J. N. Humphrey and wife are in town to spend a portion of their summer vacation.

W. T. Havens has sold his house, liver bird and Williams & Havens their livery stock to Pierce & Alderson. He takes possession immediately. Mr. H. occupies the house until fall. The new firm are wide awake, active young men and ought to make the business a success.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Grandall, of Morgan Park, Illinois, arrived in town Monday evening. They will spend their summer vacation here.

C. C. Bell will begin the improvement of his store property at once. He has contracted a large portion of the upper story to the Odd Fellows for a hall, which will be 22x49, with a 12 foot ceiling.

J. B. Whiting, Jr., visited this place Tuesday, making the trip on his wheel chair.

A secretion that contaminates the blood.

When the bile is diverted from its proper channels, into the blood, which is always the case in liver complaints, it ceases to be a healthy secretion, and becomes a poison. Its abdominal presence in the circulation and stomach is indicated by the enfusation of the skin with a hideous saffron tinge, by head aches, vertigo, nausea, pain in the right side and under the right scillicote, pain by indigestion, obstruction of the bowels and other minor symptoms. Order Dr. Dr. Dr. by the substituted for this state of chaos, and further bodily evil relieved by using the benignant aperient and tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, by relaxing the bowels, promotes the escape from the circulation of bilious impurities, besides removing the action of the liver regulator and ridding every trace of dyspepsia.

This pleasant and purely vegetable anti-bilious medicine is not only indefinitely more effective than any form of mercury, but it is on account of its freedom from hurtful properties, infinitely to be preferred to that poisonous drug.

SMILED AT THE GIRLS.

TWENTY NAVAL CADETS ON TRIAL AT THE NAVAL ACADEMY

For Giving Expression to Their Admiration of the Fair Sex—Result of a School Girl Excursion to Annapolis.

BARRINGTON, June 24.—For two days an Irish party, with a musical band, has been going up and down before the steam building in the Naval academy yard at Annapolis. For two days within this building a court of inquiry has been sitting, composed of Commander Farquhar and two brother officers. Before the trial table are arranged twenty members of the school cadets. The scene is one of much interest, and the spectators are greatly interested in the gravity of the offense of which the cadets are accused.

The offense consists in singing and blowing flutes to a party of Baltimore Simlar school girls on a pleasure.

On Wednesday the steamer No. 1 White dropped down the harbor, having on board a merry excursion party, composed of the choir, Sunday-school and officers of the Mountain State. The students are to be entertained at Annapolis. The girls remained an hour.

Two of the girls were sick.

A number of Lime people partook of pleasures at Newville on Monday.

Mrs. R. Bacon is visiting at Appleton this week.

The Normal students are at home for a vacation.

Some new steps are being made at the M. E. church. They have long been needed.

We understand that since the picnic to Clear Lake, one of the young men sang, "The Girl I Left Behind Me."

A great many farmers have finished setting tobacco.

Mrs. W. E. Tousey, of Edgerton, has been visiting relatives in this place.

Mrs. A. A. Miller and children, of Fargo, Dakota, are visiting at Mrs. Miller's old home.

The party given by Henry Cox last Tuesday evening in his new barn was largely attended by the young people of this place.

Miss Minnie Hubbard, Miss Minnie Barber and Miss Cleo, of Fulton, spent Wednesday night with Mr. McCloskey's people, at Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hull and Mrs. L Hull visited at Lake Mills Sunday.

We expect to learn that Mrs. A. Stillman is very low of the present writing.

Miss Mary Bell Tentant is spending a few weeks at the present writing.

A dressmaker is needed in Linn.

Mrs. F. House is enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Bennett.

Miss Hattie Wilder is among the sick this week.

A number of Lime people partook of pleasures at Newville on Monday.

Mrs. R. Bacon is visiting at Appleton this week.

The Normal students are at home for a vacation.

Some new steps are being made at the M. E. church. They have long been needed.

We understand that since the picnic to Clear Lake, one of the young men sang, "The Girl I Left Behind Me."

The girls were under the care of teachers, and though they cast many glances at the handsome uniforms opportunity was allowed to exchange words. The cadets manifested their admiration for the girls by smiling, doing the simplest things, and throwing back their heads and waving their fingers. These attentions, however, were not returned. The cadets got up a sort of broom drill on the campus and performed maneuvers, romping like schoolboys, and in many ways exhibited their great appreciation of the visit of the girls. Some were noisy, but no bad language was used. The watchman had been an unseason spectator of everything that had occurred, and made notes of the actions of the cadets, which he submitted singly to the court. Next day he handed in a report, in which were the names of cadets, coupled with the following offenses: Only kissing the hand at an unknown hour.

BUCKINGHAM'S ATTORNEY.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 24.—Sitting Bull called at the White House Tuesday. He had never seen the president, and waited a long time. The room was filled with office-seekers, and Sitting Bull had only time to express his pleasure at meeting President Cleveland when the latter dismissed him rather uncomprehendingly by saying that he was too busy to chat with him. The Sioux chief was sorely disappointed. Gathering up his robes he swept out of the room, making no effort to conceal his displeasure. The interpreter, thinking he was angry, said to him, "You are very busy." To which Sitting Bull grunted, "Hump, white man heap damn fool."

—Chief Marshal Charles Atwood, of the Fourth of July celebration, has appointed as his assistant marshals for the day and evening parades, Messrs. Charles E. Pierce, Wilson Luce, J. H. Burns, George McKay, and Thos. F. Murry.

—Our readers will not, we trust, forget the instruction in Bible study, to be given by Miss Smiley, at the Trinity church at 7:30 o'clock this evening. It will be abundantly worth hearing. Miss Smiley is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Conover.

—Mrs. W. H. Leonard, wife of Mr. W. H. Leonard, of the Recorder, and her two daughters, Maud and Mobile, left evening for Mitchell, Dakota. They expect to spend the most of the summer in Dakota, Iowa and Minnesota.

—The Concordia society treated their friends to a most pleasant dancing party at their hall last evening. The attendance was quite large, every one was at home, and the best of cheer prevailed throughout the evening. The Arion band furnished the music.

—A good many persons have asked what those young men on the street are wearing a navy uniform for? We inquired and found that they are advertising Schenck's medicines and that Heimstreet has them for sale, (that is the medicines, not the boy.)

—The members of the fire department are requested to meet at the west side engine house Friday evening at eight o'clock, for the purpose of taking action on the invitation to participate in the Fourth of July parade. A full and prompt attendance of all the members is requested.

—Harvey Clark, a brakeman on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, was run over by a freight car while switching in the yards at Broadhead this morning, and lost his right arm. Dr. J. B. Whiting, the company's surgeon, was telephoned for, and the doctor went to Broadhead and attended the injured man, this forenoon.

—Little John Conley died this morning at the home of his parents on River street. Deceased was thirteen years old. He had been suffering for some time of malarial fever, and for the past week it was thought that he could not live. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at nine o'clock from St. Patrick's church.

—Fontana Park—familiarly known as Porter's—at Geneva lake, is now opened and ready for guests. Mr. Lester Porter will have charge of the park this season, which is sufficient guarantee that it will be well managed. A daily stage will leave Sharon every morning at 8:30 o'clock, and return in time to connect with the accommodation north in the evening. Janesville pleasure seekers will find the Sharon route convenient and pleasant.

—Many people supposed that the old gentleman had accompanied the young people to the theater and didn't propose to have any courting in progress between the acts.

—The play was good and the pantomime performance in the cross circle fully appreciated by the few loving audience.

—Temperance Widespreads. The entertainment given by the Janesville Temperance Widespreads at Legion hall this evening, should be well patronized. It will be of much merit, interesting to all, and in a good cause; so that all who can possibly do so should encourage the children by their presence.

—Besides the recitations and songs by children, there will be a number of selections by Mrs. Haddele, one of the most talented speakers of the east. All speak highly of her as the following extract from the Chatham Courier will show: "Mrs. Haddele, of Boston, gave a pleasant evening of readings at the Baptist church Friday evening. Her selections were from popular authors and were tragic, pathetic and humorous. The last recitation was given in a costume one hundred years old, the bonnet having belonged to the first Methodist woman in New London, Connecticut. Her linen gloves were made from flax grown and spun by the women of 1776. Mrs. Haddele studied elocution in the Blish school, Tremont Temple, Boston. Her voice is well managed and is admirably adapted for church or hall. Her manner is natural and her admirable selections will gain for her approbation wherever she may go."

—Miss Emily W. Mount, daughter of Jeremiah and Robina Mount, died at her home, 28 Pearl street, first ward, of that dreadful disease, quick consumption, aged 25 years. Her illness dating from February last. Her death occurred at six o'clock this morning, surrounded by all the members of the family, calling each one by name and bidding them farewell. As a teacher for several years, she always endeavored to do her work faithfully and well where duty called her. Thus has passed away a cherished and beloved sister and daughter from a home where all hearts are lost to mourn their loss. Funeral Friday, at 10 a.m., from the residence.

—Yesterday a clerk in a prominent east side grocery house tied up three or four dirty shirts and took them to the store intending to send them to the laundry. He laid his bundle on the counter to attend customers. Presently a lady from the country called who had made a purchase of some kind at a dry goods store, her bundle being similar to that of the clerk intended for the laundry. She made her purchase of groceries, and when she left, by mistake she took the bundle containing the clerk's dirty shirts. The clerk in time took the dry goods to the Chinaman—Chinaman "no washes clean dry goods," and returns the bundle to the clerk, who is now all broke up to know what the country lady will say when she finds four dirty shirts in place of her new silk dress.

The suit of A. J. Russell vs. the Jonesville Pickling and Preserving company et al., was resumed yesterday afternoon, and is continued to-day.

—TOBACCO FIELDS.

Are Well Started and Farmers Feel Better.

How Growers and Dealers Around the Country Feel

If the tobacco growers of this neighborhood had made that weather for their especial business it could not have been more suitable. The heavy rain last Friday night was the thing above all others that was wished for by the farmers, and Saturday night showed a large proportion of the tobacco fields ready for business. Since then there have been very favorable conditions, and but little resting has been necessitated. The acreage will be much larger than last year, being marked contrast with that of the east. Nothing whatever has been done in the noted leaf line, and no purchases from first bands are reported.

—NEXT OF JULY.

The Great Celebration in Janesville.

Entertainment and Amusement for Everybody.

The committee having in charge the details of the Fourth of July celebration in this city, are busy arranging for the grandest and most complete celebration ever held in Southern Wisconsin, and success is now assured. Elated at the grand affair on July 4th last year, they are determined to lay that magnificent display in the shade, and have accordingly planned on a more extensive scale. John M. Whitehead, Esq., will be the orator of the day; Mr. Morris M. Bostwick the Reader. There will be a grand parade of the military and civic societies both day and evening, which will include many tableau cars—scenes in the revolutionary war, the trades, the calathampus, etc. Games and races in the streets during the afternoon, and a grand carnival parade in the evening, including a magnificent display of fire works. It is impossible at this time to give a complete program of the entertainment, but it will be published as soon as the committees can arrange the details.

The people may rest assured that Janesville will have the grandest celebration of any city in the state, and all who wish to see a grand Fourth of July celebration will not be disappointed in visiting Janesville on that day.

—PUBLICATE NUMBERS.

Causes Much vexation at the Opera House.

The course of true love is never suposed to glide along without a ripple and occasionally the gentle current strikes an obstruction which creates quite a commotion.

An experience of this character came to a pair of sympathizing hearts at the opera house one night last week, which was slightly embarrassing and not calculated to aid in the culture and development of the delicate sentiment which precedes matrimonial felicity.

Seated in the front row of the dress circle just before the curtain raised, was noticed a spare haired elderly gentleman from the rural districts. He occupied the end of a pew, to his right was a vacant seat, and a usual glance around the crowded hall failed to disclose any thing but standing room elsewhere. Presently a young gentleman and lady confronted the lonely pleasure seeker and patiently waited in the aisle while the usher engaged him in an animated conversation about his rights as an American citizen. He said he had voted the republican ticket ever since the war and at the present time had in his possession a straight ticket which entitled him to that particular seat in the orchestra circle, for which he had squandered ten cents in good silver and if the young man would kindly go away and stop bothering him, he would be obliged, and if he would come out to the arm most day he would take time to chat with him for half an hour. To gain the youthful guide endeavored to explain that he was in the wrong box; and finally the gentleman who had the lady in charge suggested by way of compromise that he move along and allow the lady to occupy the end of the seat and he would hold down a chair in the aisle at her side.

But all to no purpose, he would be obliged, and if he would come out to the arm most day he would take time to chat with him for half an hour. —CONNECTICUT VALLEY.

The course has again come round when the entire community of tobacco growers are once more busy in planting out their crop of tobacco, and yet we never know the time when the grower went about his work with so little spirit or animation. So long as the hard working farmer can see but a moiety of profit, he will work cheerfully, early and late. If the present crop should prove a failure very many will then bend their energies in another direction, come another year—American Cultivator.

—PENNSYLVANIA.

Our market has had no share in the lively sport that marked the New York market last week, where some 3,000 or more cases of cigar tobacco were sold. On the contrary, the past eight days have been quiet ones, so far as the trade in cigar tobacco is concerned. The sales of all grades and years will reach 300 cases in small lots, and at private prices. With the arrival of the new York market, however, things perhaps may awaken into a little more life here also. Compared with the sales of last year, the above shows a decrease of 150 cases. For the corresponding week of last year the sales reached 500 cases.

—NEW YORK.

Transactions in Little Dotto continue at figures close to $8. Planters generally are well informed as to the value of 15¢ and 18¢ and evident reluctance to part with it at prevailing prices.

Some 15¢ from all quarters exhibit satisfactor progress of sweating across in deep, rich colors, delightful flavor and good burning qualities.

The new crop has fairly started under favoring conditions. The acreage of Dutch and Spanish will be reduced, and that of seedless increased.—Miamisburg Bulletin.

—GRAND CONCERT.

The attendance at the meeting of the Choral Union last evening was large and enthusiastic, and the chorus accomplished some very satisfactory work and were highly commended by Prof. Torrens.

The Union have completed arrangements for the grandest concert of the year to be given Wednesday evening July 8 at the Riverside rink. This concert will be given during the week ending June 23d, as reported by C. E. Bowles.
